

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Ohio Department of Agriculture will hold a public hearing for the purpose of accepting testimony on the proposed rescission to Chapter 901-17 of the Administrative Code.

The rules in this package regulate the Ohio Rural Rehabilitation program overseen by the Ohio Department of Agriculture. The Ohio Rural Rehabilitation program was developed to assist Americans affected by the Great Depression. At that time, money was set aside for the relief effort to “make grants to the several states to aid in meeting the costs of furnishing relief and in relieving the hardship and suffering caused by unemployment in the form of money, service, materials, and/or commodities to provide the necessities of life to persons in need as a result of the present emergency, and/or their dependents, whether resident, transient, or homeless.” These funds were administered in Ohio by the Ohio Rural Rehabilitation Corporation. In 1973, the Ohio Department of Agriculture, through a Use Agreement entered into by the Department and the Federal Government, took over the program.

Ohio Revised Code section 901.30 through .34 outlines the program. Specifically, ORC 901.32 states that “[m]oney credited to the [Ohio farm loan fund] may be expended or obligated by the director for rural rehabilitation purposes benefiting the state.” The Revised Code and associated Use Agreement provides the Department and its community enough guidance and authority to administer the program. The administrative code rules currently merely duplicate and/or reiterate the Revised Code. For those reasons, it was determined that the rules in this chapter are no longer necessary.

The hearing will be held on:
