The Common Sense Initiative is established in R.C. 107.61 to eliminate excessive and duplicative rules and regulations that stand in the way of job creation. Under the Common Sense Initiative, agencies must balance the critical objectives of regulations that have an adverse impact on business with the costs of compliance by the regulated parties. Agencies should promote transparency, responsiveness, predictability, and flexibility while developing regulations that are fair and easy to follow. Agencies should prioritize compliance over punishment, and to that end, should utilize plain language in the development of regulations.

Reason for Submission

- 1. R.C. 106.03 and 106.031 require agencies, when reviewing a rule, to determine whether the rule has an adverse impact on businesses as defined by R.C. 107.52. If the agency determines that it does, it must complete a business impact analysis and submit the rule for CSI review.

Which adverse impact(s) to businesses has the agency determined the rule(s) create?

The rule(s):

- a. Requires a license, permit, or any other prior authorization to engage in or operate a line of business.
- b. Imposes a criminal penalty, a civil penalty, or another sanction, or creates a cause of action for failure to comply with its terms.
- c. Requires specific expenditures or the report of information as a condition of compliance.
- d. Is likely to directly reduce the revenue or increase the expenses of the lines of business to which it will apply or applies.

Regulatory Intent

- 2. Please briefly describe the draft regulation in plain language.

Please include the key provisions of the regulation as well as any proposed amendments.

The department has drafted the amendments proposed in this rule package to assist with consistency between Administrative Code and Revised Code. Since the last revision of the rules, the Revised Code has been amended by House Bill 506 in 2018 and House Bill 166 in 2019. House Bill 506 revised multiple sections of Chapter 956 of the Revised Code to revise the law governing high volume dog breeders and other dog-related professionals and facilities. House Bill 166, commonly known as the FY 2020-2021 Operating Budget, amended sections 956.01, 956.031, 956.051, and 956.20 of the Revised Code. Both House Bills initiated the large number of changes necessary in this proposed rule package.

Rule 901:1-5-12 outlines testing standards of Brucella canis and acceptable types of tests as well as the entities which may perform the tests. Further, the rule outlines three types of Brucella canis classification. The rule is being amended to allow for the card test to be used, change requirements for identification and reporting, and LSC required changes.

10. What input was provided by the stakeholders, and how did that input affect the draft regulation being proposed by the Agency?

During the first stakeholder outreach comment period, the Department received comments regarding the changes made to the removal of dewclaws and tail docking, fly mitigation program, the definition of access the outdoors, and the Brucella canis approved testing methods. In response to received comments, the Department amended the rules to require tail docking to be performed by a licensed veterinarian and all suggested rule language regarding a fly mitigation program was incorporated. The Department amended the definition of access the outdoors to achieve consistency with the Ohio Revised Code. The Brucella canis card test was added to the list of approved testing methods to increase surveillance and reporting of this zoonotic disease.

11. What scientific data was used to develop the rule or the measurable outcomes of the rule? How does this data support the regulation being proposed?

The United States Department of Agriculture regulations regarding the housing of dogs served as the starting point in drafting the original regulations. The proposed amended rules include input from veterinarians, members of the public, humane agents, animal rescue workers, dog breeders, and other interested parties.

12. What alternative regulations (or specific provisions within the regulation) did the Agency consider, and why did it determine that these alternatives were not appropriate? If none, why didn't the Agency consider regulatory alternatives?

Alternative regulations for this industry were not considered due to the prescriptive nature of the Ohio Revised Code. Furthermore, standards for the care of animals and equal opportunity for individuals entering the industry prohibit the use of alternative regulations.

13. Did the Agency specifically consider a performance-based regulation? Please explain. Performance-based regulations define the required outcome, but don't dictate the process the regulated stakeholders must use to achieve compliance.

These rules are not performance based due to the nature of the regulated industry. This rule package is primarily the standards of care for high volume breeders and by necessity these rules provide minimum standards of how breeders are to conduct their business.

14. What measures did the Agency take to ensure that this regulation does not duplicate an existing Ohio regulation?

The Department has sole regulatory authority over this area of industry.

15. Please describe the Agency's plan for implementation of the regulation, including any measures to ensure that the regulation is applied consistently and predictably for the regulated community.

The Department intends to provide educational outreach programs to educate the industry regarding the changes to the regulations. The Department also provides copies of the Ohio Revised Code and Ohio Administrative Code, as it pertains to the industry, with all new and renewal license applications. The administrative and field staff within the Animal Health division are also available for guidance to all industry members. The Animal Health division meets on a weekly basis to ensure consistency and predictability throughout the state for the regulated community.

Adverse Impact to Business

16. Provide a summary of the estimated cost of compliance with the rule. Specifically, please do the following:

a. Identify the scope of the impacted business community; and

All pet stores which sell dogs, dog brokers, and high volume dog breeders operating in the state of Ohio.

b. Identify the nature of all adverse impact (e.g., fees, fines, employer time for compliance,); and

All pet stores, dog brokers, and high volume dog breeders must submit a completed application along with the appropriate license fee to be considered a complete application in compliance with section 956.07 or 956.21 of the Revised Code. The rules require specific information and documents to be recorded and maintained. These records must be made available upon request.

c. Quantify the expected adverse impact from the regulation.

The adverse impact can be quantified in terms of dollars, hours to comply, or other factors; and may be estimated for the entire regulated population or for a “representative business.” Please include the source for your information/estimated impact.

For tail docking to be performed by a licensed veterinarian, a regulated business will incur an increase in veterinary expenses. This increase in expenses will be dependent on the breed of the puppy, each veterinary clinic’s pricing, and the number of puppies per year.

Regarding primary housing changes, industry will potentially need to reconstruct cage layout. This expense will directly relate to the size of the high volume breeder operation and current facility layout. Construction costs will be dependent on the contractor, building materials, and industry time involved will vary by facility.

17. Why did the Agency determine that the regulatory intent justifies the adverse impact to the regulated business community?

The intentions of the proposed regulations are to provide regulatory framework for the standards of care for dogs and equal opportunities to those engaged in the regulated community. The adverse impacts are considered justified based on consistent regulation throughout the state of Ohio for this industry.

Regulatory Flexibility

18. Does the regulation provide any exemptions or alternative means of compliance for small businesses? Please explain.

77 SOUTH HIGH STREET | 30TH FLOOR | COLUMBUS, OHIO 43215-6117

CSIPublicComments@governor.ohio.gov

Chapter 956 of the Revised Code does not grant an exemption or alternative means of compliance for small businesses.

19. How will the agency apply Ohio Revised Code section 119.14 (waiver of fines and penalties for paperwork violations and first-time offenders) into implementation of the regulation?

The department works with violators to educate them to correct any potential future violations.

20. What resources are available to assist small businesses with compliance of the regulation?

The department has online resources and field staff available to provide assistance.
